Craft Spirits

Rum Cooperative v1 $32.14

May sale price

Rum Cooperative v2 $32.14

May sale price

American Straight Whiskey $35.14

A spirit that captures the essence of bourbon and rye without relying too heavily on either. Our mash-bill features 45% corn, which imparts a sweet, bourbon-esque overtone, complemented by 45% rye, which gives the whiskey a dry, spicy finish.

Boston Rum $30.14

Distilled from a blend of blackstrap and sweet molasses and aged in our used whiskey barrels, our Boston rum displays a complexity not usually found in a 3-year rum. Butterscotch, vanilla and caramel leap off the tongue, rounded out by some subtle fruit of banana and pineapple. May sale price

Estate Gin $25.14

We start with a base of neutral grain and a house-distilled apple brandy. We then add traditional botanicals such as Albanian Juniper, coriander and lemon, as well as more unique ingredients like lavender, hibiscus and pink peppercorn, plus a few others we like to keep secret. May sale price.

Vodka $25.14

Our small-batch vodka is distilled from 100% corn and goes through an extensive filtration process that uses over 50 pounds of activated carbon--that extra bit of filtration really helps give it a smooth, clean finish with subtle sweetness from the corn. May sale price.

Amaro $30.14

A combination of 26 different botanicals, the bitter-backbone comes from a combination of hops, cinchona and gentian root. It is complemented by a pop of grapefruit and rounded out by earthy and floral notes from yarrow, rhubarb root and fig.

The Old Fashioned $25.14

The Old Fashioned is an easy drink to make, but a hard drink to make well. Like any well-made cocktail, the key is balance. Just enough sweetness to complement the bitters and just enough whiskey to make the whole thing worth drinking. May sale price.
